Laurens Vosloo is New Chief Financial Officer

San Manuel Indian Reservation (Near Highland, Calif.), June 18, 2018 –As of today, the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Laurens Vosloo to the post of Chief Financial Officer (CFO) for the Tribe. Mr. Vosloo, who served as CFO for San Manuel Casino since 2014, will serve as the top Financial Executive for all Tribal enterprises, including the casino.

“It is a tremendous advantage when we are able to fill the enterprise-wide CFO position with a professional who has a demonstrated record of success with the Tribe’s government gaming enterprise,” said Jerry Paresa, Chief Executive Officer of the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians.

Over the past 4 years, Laurens has contributed significantly to the growth and development projects at the casino and will help guide the Tribe and its businesses to even greater heights. He brings a proven and highly successful record of leading multiple operational groups and engagement teams in the gaming, entertainment, hospitality, and audit industries.

“Laurens has been instrumental in helping me shepherd in a season of exponential growth for San Manuel Casino,” said Loren Gill, General Manager of San Manuel Casino. “His financial acumen and strategic vision are invaluable, and I look forward to our continued partnership on future endeavors.”

Prior to joining San Manuel Casino, Laurens Vosloo was executive director of finance for the Las Vegas Sands Corp., in Las Vegas, NV. He earned dual Bachelor of Science Degrees from the University of Nevada – Las Vegas in Accounting and Management and his Certified Public Accountant license in Nevada.
