San Manuel Band of Mission Indians to Host Native American Day Family Event

A celebration of generations at Cal State San Bernardino

HONORING

TRADITION:

San Manuel Band of Mission Indians invites the public to experience traditional music and dances from around California at a free family-friendly celebration at 6 p.m., Friday, September 25th at Cal State San Bernardino.

Attending children will make their own Clapper Sticks, rhythmic instruments that are traditional to central California tribes, and learn songs with the Tuolumne Band of Me-Wuk Indians of the central Sierra Nevada region. Favorite foods such as fry bread will be available for purchase along with craft items from onsite vendors.

The California Native American Day celebration is sponsored by the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians and Cal State San Bernardino.

LOCATION:

California State University, San Bernardino – Lower Commons Area
5500 University Parkway, San Bernardino, CA 92407

DATE/TIME:

Friday, September 25TH from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

About the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians

The San Manuel Band of Mission Indians is a federally recognized American Indian tribe located near the city of Highland, Calif. The Serrano Indians are the indigenous people of the San Bernardino highlands, passes, valleys and mountains who share a common language and culture. The San Manuel reservation was established in 1891 and recognized as a sovereign nation with the right of self-government. Since time immemorial, the San Manuel tribal community has endured change and hardship. Amidst these challenges, the Tribe continued to maintain its unique form of governance. Like other governments it seeks to provide a better quality of life for its citizens by building infrastructure, maintaining civil services and promoting social, economic and cultural development. Today San Manuel tribal government oversees many governmental units including the departments of fire, public safety, education and environment.

CALIFORNIA NATIVE AMERICAN DAY SEPTEMBER 25

A CELEBRATION FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION

California is home to more Tribes than any other state in the Nation. Join us on September 25 to celebrate the first cultures of California.
